

Titiyo, Loving Out Of Nothing

Uh huh
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Once it's growing you will wonder how your heart it started beatin' Well 'lest it's over you'll do anything
work through fire from the feeling And honey
We made love for nothin
We just let it in and closed the door
And turned a little of it into somethin
We was drinking sweetness off the floor
And made love out of nothin for somethin' more Oh yeah, oh yeah
