

Tito & Tarantula, Screaming Train

I'm wearing my best suit
With an arm full of roses
A binge is in the cards
And I know it
Every blur
Is a passing town
Every silent
Slur profound
I wrote you a song
But I forgot it
While I was away
Did you miss me?
I need a drink
Before I see you
My suits getting wrinkled
I dreamed you drowned
In the Rio Grande
I need a drink before I go
Screaming silent train
Riding down the main line
Screaming silent train
I'm on my way
To see you again
I heard a rumor
U disappeared
But I know it better
I dreamed you rising
Out of the river
On fire
My heart's desire
You needed one who understood
I need a drink before I go
Screaming silent train
Riding down the main line
Screaming silent train
I'm on my way
To see you again
Screaming silent train
Riding down the main line
Screaming silent train
I'm on my way
To see you again
Screaming silent train
Screaming silent train
Screaming silent train
Screaming silent train
Screaming silent train
Screaming silent train
