

TLC, Damaged

I know I'm kind of strange
To you sometimes
Don't always say
What's on my mind
You know that I've been hurt
By some guy
But I don't wanna mess up this time

::BRIDGE:

And I really really really care
And I really really really want you
And I think I'm kinda scared
'Cause I don't want to lose you
If your really really really there
Then maybe you can hang through
I hope you understand
It's nothing to you

::CHORUS:

My heart's at a low
I'm so much to manage
I think you should know that
I've been damaged
I'm falling in love
There's one disadvantage
I think you should know that
I've been damaged

I might look through your stuff
For what I don't want to find
Or I might just set you up
To see if you're all mine
I'm a little paranoid
From what I've been through
Don't know what you got yourself into

::BRIDGE:

And I really really really care (I care about you so much)
And I really really really want you (I really do want you)
And I think im kinda scared (But I'm scared with every touch)
'Cause I don't want to lose you ('Cause I don't wanna lose you)
If your really really really there (If you care for me like you say)
Then maybe you can hang through (Maybe you can hang through)
I hope you understand (I hope you understand)
It's nothing to you (It's nothin' to you)

::CHORUS:

My heart's at a low (low)
I'm so much to manage

I think you should know that (I think you should know that)

I'm falling in love (I love you so)
