

TLC, Understanding

what i need from you is understanding how can we communicate.
If you don't hear me what i say so simple as 1,2,3 understanding is what i mean. You don't even know me you just wanna do what u wanna do. That's not the way it should be no. You should listen to me, boyi tried so very hard to make you understand. But the chooses you make baby they're all demands oh. I tried so very hard to keep our love alive. But you don't wanna meet me half the way. Then the understanding dies. Theres no way that we can work it out if we don't pull together. I don't need to be demanding. I want some understanding. I wanna be with you

(chours)

I listen to you baby. And i know the things you going throug. I try to understand. That's why I'm still with you baby. See everyday we living. Theres one thing that'll always be unsure. That's why i need you baby, Pleading baby. Please let our love endure
