To/Die/For, In Solitude

I'm not the one to die for Don't grieve for me After I am gone No one remembers

Let me die in solitude Under pale grey clouds Let me sleep forever Six feet under ground

This life ain't what I wanted Don't cry for me I'm not worth your pain I'm not worth your tears

I say goodbye And raindrops taste like tears In the pouring rain I stand and die alone

In my final hour As I kneel on the leaves I can feel the wave of warmth Was over me

Then it's finally over My earthly misery I'm not to be remembered Don't cry for me
