

To-Mera, Blood

Far away and oh so near
I lost my way as I found my place
In this damned
Playground of the universe
On the tracks of blood drops from my kin's veins
Once again
Idegen szavak
Ujra itt
And as I turn back
I hear your cries, calling me, I hear you screaming my name
As I close my eyes and hide the past inside
Wishing there was nothing to remember you by
Felek, almomban itt voltal, ezertem a szivem meghasadt
Ezertem a lelke szetszakadt, es igaz volt minden
Nem csak alom mely elvesz a reggellel
Once again
Idegen szavak
Ujra itt
And as I turn back
I hear your cries, calling me, I hear you screaming my name
As I close my eyes and hide the past inside
Wishing there was nothing to remember you by
Once again I am back here
With you inside this dream
And I try to believe
Trying to believe
To believe that I'm forgiven
That my tears are not in vein
And as I turn back
I hear your cries, calling me, I hear you screaming my name
As I close my eyes and hide the past inside
Wishing there was nothing to remember you by
