

Toad The Wet Sprocket, Come Back Down

i've come here a thousand times, some things never change
"yes i will, anything you say" i've quit this a million times, can't quite stay away just one more time...i'll be ok but i'm so damn tired

when i come back down
though i'm crazy to anything you want from me i'll do
when I come back down

"hey joe, could you spare a buck i could use some food" what a laugh, you're just one more fool two hours and it's back again, lapping at my heels stop yelling...i'll get through

anything you want from me i'll do
when I come back down
when I come back down

i've come here a thousand time some things never change lay me down...take me away oh god, i'm so damn tired

anything you want from me i'll do
when I come back down,
come back down
