

Toad The Wet Sprocket, Fly From Heaven

Paul is making me nervous
Paul is making me scared
Into this room he swaggers, like he's
God's own messenger
Change the name of my brother
Change the things that he said
Says that he speaks to him
But he never even knew the man
I'd give my life for him

Like water through my hands
You'd give him any ending
But if he's all you say
Would he fly from Heaven
To this world again
To this world again...

Take whatever you're needing
Take whatever you can
We're broken from within
Run to another land

Like water through my hands
Or is it just beginning
But if he's all you say
Would he fly from Heaven
To this world again
To this world again...

They took my brother
They ripped him from me
To twist his words as they did his body
Denied his family, denied his beauty
To lay him down at the feet of
Those he couldn't save
Couldn't save, couldn't save

Will it be the end?
Or is he still ascending?
But if he's all you say
Would he fly from Heaven
To this world again
