

Toadies, Song I Hate

I'm giving up on you.
How could I ever call you mine?
You're too pretty, too simple, too easy.
You're just a waste of time.

And I won't miss you when you're gone.
You never moved me anyway.
I want to wish you all the best and send you off.
I hope somebody finds you entertaining.

You're the song I hate,
But I can't let go. (2X)

You know it gets so hard, so hard to keep moving on.
Through all your pretty little changes,
Sometimes I wish I could just close my eyes and wish you away.

You're the song I hate,
But I can't let go. (2X)

You're the song I...(3X)
You're the song I hate.
The song I hate.

Tried so hard to change you, to make you something I could enjoy.
But you insist on just acting the plaything,
Your just a toy, just a toy.

You're the song I hate,
But I can't let go. (2X)

You're the song I...(3X)
You're the song I hate.
