

Toby Keith, Whos's That Man

Turn left at the old hotel, I know this boulevard much too well
It hasn't changed since I've been gone
This used to be my way home

They paved the road through the neighborhood
I guess the county finally fixed good
It was getting rough someone finally complained enough
Fight the tears back with a smile

Stop and look for a little while though it's plain to see
The only thing missing is me

choruse

That's my house and that's my car that's my dog in my backyard
There's the window to the room where she lays her pretty head
I planted that tree out by the fence not long after we moved in That's my kids and that's my wife, who's that man

Running my life

If I pulled in would it cause a scene?

They're not really expecting me those kids have been through hell
I hear they've adjusted well

Turn around in the neighbor's drive
I'd be hard to recognize in this pickup truck

It's just an old fixer up

Drive away one more time, lot of things running through my mind

Oh unless things changed boy they never seem the same chorus
