

Toby Lightman, River

The roads are closed, do you know where you should be?
When the lights are dim, are you going to come crying to me?
'Cause you're sitting there with your legs crossed looking so carefree...
Do you think you can run away from your so-called misery?

'Cause you know the tide ain't rollin' in for you
The tide ain't rollin' in for me
Are you going to sink?
Are you going to swim?
Because I'll take you down to the river...
Yes, I'll take you down to the river...
In the end I'll take you down to the river...
But you're going in.... you're going in...

Now the choice is yours, are you in or are you going to back out?
Well this is your life baby are you going to take a look around?
You seem to think that all of your chances are going to take you down
I'm telling you to open up your eyes and take those feet off the ground.

'Cause you know the tide ain't rollin' in for you
The tide ain't rollin' in for me
Are you going to sink?
Are you going to swim?
Because I'll take you down to the river...
Yes, I'll take you down to the river...
Don't you know I'll take you down to the river...
But you're going in.... you're going in...

Now the roads are closed, do you know where you should be?
Now the lights are dim, are you going to come crying to me?

'Cause you know the tide ain't rollin' in for you
The tide ain't rollin' in for me
Are you going to sink?
Are you going to swim?
Because I'll take you down to the river...
Yes, I'll take you down to the river...
In the end I'll take you down to the river...
But you're going in.... you're going in...
