

Token, Mass Reform

Now recently a lot of people have opened my eyes to the fact that I talk about myself a lot in my music

Token ain't aimin' if he don't aim for the top
I get the passion of a caged animal who is trained to be breakin' a lock
They say I'm good for my age, fuck outta here
If I was double your age I'd be takin' your spot
I got every writer on high alert when I dive in a cypher first
So much excitement inside my verse I don't mind if the mic don't work
"Hello?"

I got so many quotables the DJ wants to drop the beat on my entire verse
I tell him bring it back or he's gettin' slapped
These other rappers givin' 'em wack music and I'll just give 'em a whack
He'll stumble and fall, that's all good
Us minors don't get in trouble at all, nah
You older rappers are goners
I'm bolder, faster and stronger
I'll blow you outta the water
I won't stop until all the people know my name
I qualified the Golden Age
The prodigy from protégé

I work while you try
I'm first, you're behind
I was birthed when you died
My worst is your prime
Rash on 'em 'til I get headaches all in my mind
So I swallow this aspirin as they swallow their pride
And that's me, that's it
I don't need anybody else to make it all happen
I focus on two things and that is
Becoming me, and you becomin' a has-been

They told me to dumb it down, said it's way too dense
They told me to switch the looks, said I ain't that fresh
I told 'em they ain't changin' me before I'm changin' them
And I'm stickin' to my guns like a bayonet
I don't create regrets
I'll spit something so over they head they'll try to understand it and sprain their neck
They try to break me, break my confidence
But the only thing they gon' do is break a sweat
Try to keep up to where it's s'posed to be goin'
You dare to try overthrow this, you'll perish in only moments
I'll stare, showin' no emotion
The heir to the throne, I'm chosen for that now
So back down
Like you're preparin' for scoliosis
I'm not gonna budge
I'm either bonkers and all the way nuts, flawless and not gettin' touched, confident, modest and love
Cocky, obnoxious and blunt
Awkward, not talkin' enough
Repulsively all the above, I'll probably just

Work while you try
I'm first, you're behind
I was birthed when you died
My worst is your prime
Rash on 'em 'til I get headaches all in my mind
So I swallow this aspirin as they swallow their pride
And that's me, that's it
I don't need anybody else to make it all happen
I focus on two things and that is
Becoming me, and you becomin' a has-been

We are not all of the same

You don't got what it takes
You are not in my lane
They talk and complain 'bout thoughts that I made
Like they wantin' my brain to be locked in a cage
I'm not gonna change, I'm causin' the pain
'Til they walkin' away
My lyrics like warfare, my career is like four square
(On top of my game)
I'm losin' my head if you think I'm pursuin' the music for them
I am building a movement that grew to oppress
I don't care about you and the group of your friends
If you aren't assumin' I'm truly immense
I will do it and do it and do it again
Until I've been proven that dude is a lunatic who isn't human I ain't even usin' a breath
I don't need to be releasin' out a breath
'Cause everybody I know already breathin' down my neck
Plus everything I do is breathtaking literally
Best racin' within the entertainment industry
I don't wanna hear you don't like when I brag
When your favourite rapper brag about shit he don't really have ('cause I got this)
Massachusetts, I got this
And I don't need reforms, I'll re-form them 'til they want this

So many people talkin' in my ear and I can't even listen
I spend way too God damn long workin' on myself to be okay with them tellin' me to be different
I don't say what they tell me to say, losin' my life and losin' myself is death either way
I will die for that
I got way too much fuckin' pride for that

So I work while you try
I'm first, you're behind
I was birthed when you died
My worst is your prime
Rash on 'em 'til I'm gettin' headaches all in my mind
So I swallow this aspirin as they swallow their pride
And that's me, and that's it
I don't need anybody else to make this all happen
I focus on two things when lookin' out
Doin' me, and the rest I ain't gotta worry 'bout
