

Tokyo Police Club, Nursery Academy

I would have gone back home
I would have gone back home
It's bad enough you're here
And it's worse that you came alone

Paper walls and folders you'd expect
The house that built a home for architects

Now that you're all grown up
I know a shortcut back
Welcome to your new home
Welcome to the Nursery
We keep keys on strings
Doorknobs out of reach
Come a little closer
Forget the Academy

Paper walls and folders you'd expect
The house that built a home for architects

Because the word on the street is
That you've got a weakness
Paper walls and folders you'd expect

I would have gone back home
I would have gone back home
It's bad enough you're here
And it's worse that you came alone

Because the word on the street is
That you've got a weakness
Paper walls and folders you'd expect

I would have gone back home
I would have gone back home
(Paper walls and folders (full as?) you'd expect
The house that built home for architects
