

Tokyo Rose, Chasing Fireflies

I've got the pictures of the memories
Running with the gang
Black and white on paper
But in my head
The colour never fades
That was before
When nothing else
Took precedence over saving the world

We used to draw lines in the sand
That none of us would dare to cross
We'd go on secret missions
To stop the villains' plans at any cost
That was before
When nothing else
Took precedence over saving the world

When was the last time you
You laughed so hard you cried?
Don't let these days fly by,
Cause you can't turn back time
How hard you try

I've finally given up on getting old
There's too much life to live before you're old
I've finally given up on getting old
There's too much life to live before you're old

That was before,
When nothing else
Took precedence over saving the world
When was that last time you
You laughed so hard you cried?
Don't let these days fly by,
Cause you can't turn back time
How hard you try

When was that last time you
You laughed so hard you cried?
Don't let these days fly by
Cause you can't turn back time
How hard you try
