Tom Jones, 200 Pounds Of Heavenly Joy

200 POUNDS OF HEAVENLY JOY WITH JOOLS HOLLAND WRITER WILLIE DIXON

All you girls think the days are gone You don't have to worry, you can have your fun Take me, baby, for your little boy Two hundred pounds of heavenly joy This is it This is it Look what you get You been creeping and hiding behind his back 'Cause you got you a man that you don't like Throw that Jack, baby, outta your mind Follow me, baby, have a real good time This is it This is it Look what you get Hoy! Hoy! I'm the boy Two hundred pounds of heavenly joy I'm so glad that you understand Three hundred pounds of muscle and man This is it This is it Look what you get If the men's all mad then the women's glad If the little kids' happy then the old folk's mad I'm so glad that you understand Two hundred pounds of muscle and man This is it This is it Look what you get
