

Tom Jones, All I Can Say Is Goodbye

There was time when your hand reached for mine
And a moment apart would mean breaking your heart
Now you're out of my arms
And we're strangers again
Is it this easy then, for a real love to end
Oh, please...turn your back...
walk away from me
I didn't dream you'd cry
I'm standing here as I've set you free
And all I can say is goodbye
I've tried everything but we must go away
If we talk anymore...we may never be sure
So don't look in my eyes
For you'll see that it shows
I still love you, you know,
But I must let you go
Oh, please...turn your back
Walk away from me
I didn't dream you'd cry
I'm standing here as I've set you free
And all I can say is goodbye
Ohhh, please... turn your back...
Walk away from me
I didn't dream you'd cry
I'm standing here as I've set you free
And all I can say is goodbye.....
