

Tom McRae, Packing For The Crash

Solid walls will crack tonight
Solid walls are gonna fall down
And this is not any golden age we've lost
Any golden age we lost
We broke it here

I'm packing for
I'm packing for the crash
I'm packing for
I'm packing for the crash

Another day and another scar will fade
But another scar will take this ones place

I'm packing for
I'm packing for the crash
I'm packing for
I'm packing for the crash

Sudden preasure
We fall through the floor
And kill this moment before it takes hold

I'm packing for
I'm packing for the crash
I'm packing for
I'm packing for the crash
