

Tom Novy, The Right Time (ft. Veralovesmusic)

I am searching every day
For the right time, the best time, the perfect time I'll stay right here exactly where I'm I still raise my fists
No thought of turning back, no
No need to break now (to break now)
This is our time (this is our time)
The base would need us somehow Believe me,
I tell you now:
It's the right time for me
the right time for love the right time for peace
the right time for trust It's the right time for you the right time for me the right time for happiness
the right time to be free /x2

Me, love, peace, trust
you, me, happy, free /x2

Me, love, peace, trust

I tell you now

It's the right time for peace

It's the right time for me

It's the right time for happiness,
the right time to be free
