

Tom Odell, Jealousy

Yesterday was awful
You know what I mean.
Yesterday was awkward
You could probably see.
I didn't mean to hurt you, or gain your sympathy
It was my jealousy.

Yesterday I was stupid
And I shouldn't have been.
Because yesterday you loved me
And I didn't see.
All this time you have, put up with me
And my jealousy. My jealousy.

Cause I never believed from the day that I met you
A loser like me could ever get you
And when we go out I hear people sing
What's that beautiful girl doing with him
I'm sorry that I'm sometimes so insecure
But with every day I grow a little more sure,
Of your love.

Yesterday my worries
Got the best of me.
Yesterday I'm sorry
That I didn't see.
I think it will go you know, oh eventually
Oh my jealousy.
Oh my jealousy.

Never let me go
Never let me go.
