

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, The Man Who Loves Women

He's the man who loves women
Women, women, women
He's the man who loves women,
And fallin in love every day

When he sees a senorita,
It's a sure thing that he'll meet her
He's the man who loves women,
And fallin in love every day

But in the mornin
When she wakes up,
He'll be far away
Keepin his secrets safe
Hey, hey, hey

But in the mornin
When she wakes up,
He'll be far away
Keepin his secrets safe
Hey, hey, hey

He's quite prepared to mingle
Comes on like he's single
He's the man who loves women
And fallin in love's just his way
(Look out)
But one of these days he's gonna pay
(Look out)
For falling in love every day

Oh stay away
He's the man who loves women...
