

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, You And Me

Take a look
At what I've got
I can't promise
You a lot
But you and me
And the road ahead

I can't save
You from yourself
You got to want it
All that's left
Is you and me
And the road ahead

Wherever that wind might blow
Wherever that river rolls
You know I will go with you

Looking over
The mountain's crown
The water roars
And tumbles down
Like you and me
And the road ahead

Wherever that wind might blow
Wherever that river rolls
You know I will go with you

Just you and me
And the road ahead
