

Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers, Zero From Outer

I've been wrapped up in confusion,
Been tied down to my bed.
Sufferin' some illusion, I'm out my fkin' head.

It's insane, took my brain and ran away.
And now, hey, hey, hey.
I'm a zero
Oh, from outer space.

But I know you think I'm jokin',
I don't mean the things I say.
Like I could, but I won't,
If I would anyway.

It's insane, took my brain and ran away.
Yeah, now, hey, hey, hey.
I'm a zero
Oh, from outer space.

Come on!

Oh!

Yeah!

You think that you're above me,
You think that you're so big.
But I saw you kick that dog
When the wind blew off your wig.

It's insane, took my brain and ran away.
Well, hey, hey, hey.
I'm a zero
From outer space.

Yeah!

Look out!

Oh!

Well, hey, hey, hey.
I'm a zero
Oh, from outer space.

Yes I am!
