Tom Petty, Wake Up Time

(Tom Petty)

You follow your feelings, you follow your dreams
You follow the leader into the trees
And what's in there waiting, neither one of us knows
You gotta keep one eye open the further you go
You never dreamed you'd go down on one knee, but now
Who could have seen, you'd be so hard to please somehow
You feel like a poor boy, a long way from home
You're just a poor boy, a long way from home

And it's wake up time Time to open your eyes And rise and shine

You spend your life dreaming, running 'round in a trance You hang out forever and still miss the dance And if you get lucky, you might find someone To help you get over the pain that will come Yeah, you were so cool back in high school, what happened You were so sure not to have your spirits dampened But you're just a poor boy alone in this world You're just a poor boy alone in this world

And it's wake up time Time to open your eyes And rise and shine

Well, if he gets lucky, a boy finds a girl
To help him to shoulder the pain in this world
And if you follow your feelings
And you follow your dreams
You might find the forest there in the trees
Yeah, you'll be alright, it's just gonna take time, but now
Who could have seen you'd be so hard to please somehow
You're just a poor boy a long way from home
You're just a poor boy a long way from home

And it's wake up time Time to open your eyes And rise and shine

'Cause it's wake up time It's time to open your eyes And rise and shine
