

Tom Swoon & Paris Blohm, Synchronize (feat. Hadouken!)

A million lights are up tonight
Glistening in a further constellation

We begin to synchronize
Two millions eyes looks back to mine
Faces in the crowd coming up now
And every single one got the same views as mine
Everybody synchronize
Run around our hearts go
Taken like imaginal
Forget it all and let it go
The tempo of the nights gonna free your life
We begin to synchronize
Run around our hearts go
Taken like imaginal
Forget it all and let it go
The tempo of the nights gonna free your life
Everybody synchronize

Everybody synchronize

A million posts are racing in time
Every single heart beats gonna eat a line
And if you feel a beat in your blood like I
We?ll begin to synchronize
Run around our hearts go
Taken like imaginal
Forget it all and let it go
The tempo of the nights gonna free your life
We begin to synchronize
