

Tom T. Hall, Joe Don't Let Your Music Kill You

Joe don't let your music kill ya it's a thing that supposed to fill ya
It's a thing that supposed to make you happy
Taking pills and drinking whiskey picking can be mighty risky
Joe don't let your music kill ya nobody cares

That song that you've been singing it's not what you think
I know you've seen some sunny days
You love your music but you love your life and there's nothing silent like a grave
Joe don't let your music kill ya...

Hunger can be killed with a can of beans don't let 'em tell you that I'm wrong
You got a good woman and she's got her dreams don't hang your life up for a song
Joe don't let your music kill ya...
Joe don't let your music kill ya...
