

Tom Waits, If I Have To Go

And if I have to go
will you remember me?
Or will you find someone else
while I'm away?

There's nothing for me in this world full of strangers
It's all someone else's idea
I don't belong here and you can't go with me you'll only slow me down

Until I send for you don't wear your hair that way and if you cannot be true I'll understand

Tell all the others
you hold in your arms
I said I'd come back for you I'll leave my jacket to keep you warm that's all that I can do

And if I have to go
will you remember me?
Or will you find someone else
while I'm away?
