

Tommy Inkila feat. Mary Jo, Bang Bang Mystery Man

You make me wait for a week for your answer
And still it is of the question kind
There you carelessly throw me a whisper
Walk away only leaving behind
The scent of mystery you wear every night
How long in the air does it linger
I thought I solved you
And locked you somehow
But I can't get the key
You stay out of my reach
Bang bang the wall
Shall I kick in the door
I bang bang the wall
Shall I kick in the door
I bang bang the wall
Shall I kick in the door
I bang bang the wall
I don't want it no more
I find myself standing in front of a shaman
Asking for answers from man with the drum
If I play loud will you fall in a trance and Bring me back some kind of a chance
Bring me hope is my uncertainty
Give me the code to break your mystery
Bring me hope is my uncertainty
Give me the code to break your mystery
I bang bang the gong
And you dance my song
I bang bang the gong
And you dance my song
I bang bang the gong
And you dance my song
I can't wait for long, so I bang bang the gong
The scent of mystery you wear every night
How long in the air does it linger
Not your concern, it is now my own fight
But as much as I cried you stayed
In my mind
Bang bang the wall
Shall I kick in the door
I bang bang the wall
Shall I kick in the door
I bang bang the wall
Shall I kick in the door
I bang bang the wall
I don't want it no more
I bang bang the gong
And you dance my song
I bang bang the gong
And you dance my song
I bang bang the gong
I can't wait for long
So I bang bang the gong
