

Tone Damli Aaberge, Lazy day in bed

It's a quarter to nine, baby
Come back to bed
Take of those close
And rest your pretty head
I wispher you secrets of the I never said
It's just a perfect day
To spend a lazy day in bed
Let the world rush on by
Let the tram hollar scream
Come back here baby
It's just a bad dream
This ain't no working day
It's all in your head
Take of your clothes
Lest spend a lazy day in bed
Ah, ah, ah
Cause there's no hurry
Put the world on hold
Forget all your worries today, baby
Don't care about tomorrow
Come what may
Don't care what others might say
Cause it's time off
Let's make it a perfect day
Get down
Such a beautiful day
Curtains dance in the wind
Curl up next to me
Lets sleep in
Your already late
So baby what do you say
Get rid of those clothes
Lets spend a lazy day in bed
Get rid of those clothes
Lets spend a lazy day in bed
