

Toni Braxton, Heart Never Had A Hero

youre the only one who made it through the fire, burning fire youre the only one who walked the water and made it to the other side youre the one who took away the feelin of falling only one who sees the sun you know im calling youre the one who took me by the hand showed me, taught me how to fly and i feel so face that im up in your arms nothing can touch when im right where you are you busted throught the doors you came up through the floor just in the nick of time to safe me ahhh, my heart never had a hero ohhh , ohh
ohhh, ohh

when there was no one else you saved me from myself almost gave up on myself til you rescued me ahhh, my heart heart never had a hero a hero , a hero ( never had a hero , a hero ) faster the speed of light come around kill the lonely better then the average man you ( something ) so incredible ohhh, you are.
never meant some one so strong you never breaks down never thought that i belong until you came around never knew how much it feels of what its like to feel when you hold, hold me, hold me (?)
and i feel so face that im up in your arms
nothing can touch when im right where you are
