

Toni Childs, Let The Rain Come Down

I'd never change a single thing I've done I'll pack my bags and say I'm on my way back now just keep the trains long, long, loves distance far from me I'm on my way
I'm on my way
I'm on my way back home

let the rain come down
come down on me
come down
let it come down

how could I hold you in so close and how could I not let anybody know how sweet it is to call your name if you loved me once would it be the same

the smell of love is fresh inside my heart and not all the things we've learned to tear us both apart what I feel now tells me I must go I'm not who you love anymore

let it come down
