

Tony Iommi, I Go Insane

I just wanna live forever
But you just made other plans
Theres a changing of the weather
And my life is in your hands
I saw you in the garden
And you turned and walked away
I dont think I can take it
Can you hear me when I say?

It dont feel the same as before
I wont take the blame anymore

When you leave I go insane
I cant breathe, I go insane
And you know inside my head I go insane
I want you to forgive
Cos I dont really want to live
To live

Now Im standing on the platform
But it must have been a dream
And I fall into a chasm
Then you pulled me from a stream
I am lifted by your spirit
And it haunts me to this day
I dont think I can take it
Can you hear me when I say?

It dont feel the same as before
I wont take the blame anymore

When you leave I go insane
I cant breathe, I go insane
And you know inside my head I go insane
I want you to forgive
Cos I dont really want to live

Every time you leave, every time I go
I dont wanna breathe, you dont wanna know
Every time I leave, every time you go
I dont wanna breathe, you dont wanna know

When you leave I go insane
I cant breathe, I go insane
And you know inside my head I go insane
I want you to forgive
Cos I dont want to live
Youve gone against the grain
And I will surely go insane
I want you to forgive
Cos I dont wanna live
Youve gone against the grain
And I just go insane
Insane
Insane
Insane
