

Tony Oller, My heart

Now take my hand.
And let me show you the way.
Take my heart, I'm ready this day.
You are the one, that many dream to find.
Now take my heart, I'm ready this time.
Now take my heart take my soul.
Let love be in control.
So take my heart take my soul.
Let love be in control.
You are the one, my love.
I can't control it anymore.
So take my heart, now take my soul.
Now I can't buy you expensive stuff.
But you can bet I'll show you love.
Show you how much I care.
If love is here then I'm right there.
Yes I am.
Now take my heart take my soul.
Let love be in control.
So take my heart take my soul.
Let love be in control.
You are the one, my love.
I can't control it anymore.
So take my heart, now take my soul.
Now sure I had it on.
Now don't be scared.
Now sure I had it,
Because you know that I'll be there.
So take my heart, now take my soul.
Now take my heart, now take my soul.
Now take my heart take my soul.
Let love be in control.
So take my heart take my soul, yeah.
So take my heart
