

Tony Oller, When life's hold on

Can you tell me, where's the story going?
What is the ending?
Cuz I'm starting to question all of these.
I've been waiting, for a happy ending.
But nothing's beginning, so tell me now.
When life's on hold,
and you don't know what to do.
People all around you,
are fighting over you.
Do you follow through?
Baby what do you do?
I ask you, I ask you.
A dream that's true goes.
And you don't know,
how to handle, people stealing the fame.
Why can't it just be easy?
Maybe they'll let me, have my day today.
When life's on hold,
and you don't know what to do.
People all around you,
are fighting over you.
Do you follow through?
Baby what do you do?
I ask you, I ask you.
How could you make me chose between my idols and you?
When life's on hold,
and you don't know what to do.
People all around you,
are fighting over you.
Do you follow through?
Baby what do you do?
I ask you, I ask you.
When life's on hold,
and you don't know what to do.
People all around you,
are fighting over you.
Do you follow through?
Baby what do you do?
I ask you, ohhhhh, I ask you ohhhhh,
today
