

Too Bad Eugene, Drama Queen

you are the drama queen 'cause it's so easy to make the world watch your sad scene and i know your mind you're at the center of the universe but who responds to your wolf cries well, did you ever have the thought to let it go? girl, i think you know you ought to just let let go

i know you think the world has brought you here but you gotta find your own way now an unseen mirror's image not so clear monopolizing anything ain't right You never thought about it in your life you can't see in the lime light you put us all to sleep 'cause you're so easy there's nothing more than an inch deep so where do we go?

you've got to give me something more well, are you ready, set, go you've got to give me something more you've got to let it all go
you've got to give me something more

monopolizing anything ain't right

well, has it never crossed your mind to let it go rather than dramatize just let
so where do we go?

monopolizing anything ain't right
you can't see in the lime light
