

Topher Jones feat Meredith Call, Benediction

If I knew the day that I would end
You best believe I would make amends
And abandon my defenses
Early on that morning
Upon the death of a good friend
You best believe I would bow my head
And deep on down I would pray instead
Of falling into mourning
I've never been the lord's best friend
And you won't find a verse that I have read
But I will be forgiven in the end
Forgiven on that morning
If I knew the day that I would end
You best believe I would make amends
And abandon my defenses
Early on that morning
Upon the death of a good friend
You best believe I would bow my head
And deep on down I would pray instead
Of falling into mourning
I've never been the lord's best friend
And you won't find a verse that I have read
But I will be forgiven in the end
Forgiven on that morning
