

TOPIC, HOME (ft. Nico Santos)

I'm halfway gone
We fought long enough
We're holding ropes
But united to love
Untied to love

If we had a moment we would ignite
Instead it seems we're tryig hard to start a fight
Along thease streets you read my words un the night
You hear me call

Let me come home to you
Let me come home to you
Don;t let me lose you too
Your smile still echoes through my head again
