

Tora Tora, 28 Days

I don't know what you might've been told
But the rumors are here
But my girl gets away with a ball and chain
And I can't see what you want from me
We're runnin' out of time
That girl she never tells me
Just what's on her mind

Chorus 1:

(Oh) I've been tryin' for 28 days
To make things work out right
And she'll be cryin' for 28 days
Cause I won't be home tonight

Well I can't see or feel another deal
Unless you send it back on me
The things you do drive me to insanity
And I told you to find someone new
And I got your wicked stare
I don't know how long I'll hold on
The rollin' stone don't care

Chorus 2:

(Oh) I've been tryin' for 28 days
To make things come out right
And she'll be cryin' for 28 days
Cause I won't be home tonight

Oh it's just so hard to say goodbye
With love deep down inside
I found another to take me home tonight
Sure enough gonna have my fun
Wanna hear my lady scream
She alone can take me
To the edge of my primal scream

Chorus 2

Well (Chorus 2)

Well (Chorus 1)
