

Tori Amos, Another Girl's Paradise

you caught me lingering in another girl's paradise the way she paints the world -- i want that in my life emeralds, you should know,
are renting in her meadow with a stroke beauty lives how could i resist you are desire when it all is said said and done who can love you and still be standing there's mary calling up a storm can i take from you and not keep taking naked as day Gemma follows him does it all come down to the thing one girl fears in the night is another girl's paradise through twists and turns Jasmine foxed me in her grove arms filled with honey-bells, st michael's sanford bloods
"you have come to discover what you want" what i want is not to want what isn't mine "but i am desire" when it all is said and done.
is another girl
is another girl
