

Tori Amos, Gary's Girl

I'm gonna be gary's girl
Six in the morning and my hands are roaming cause I'm gary's girl
There's a little bit of heaven on 92.7
When you're gary's girl
The boy knows how to turn me on
My friends all call me gary's girl

He's just, just, just, just so happenin'
You bet your life he is
You bet your life he is
You bet your life
He's a peel not a banana
He's a peel not a banana

I think I'll be gary's girl
We're all alone with his microphone
So I'm gary's girl

He's coming around cause I'm going down
The stretch to gary's world
The boy know's how to turn me on

cause he's just, just, so, so, so happenin'
You bet your life he is
You bet your life he is
You bet your life
He's a peel not a banana
Still a peel not a banana

But he's just
What he is
And he is
And he is
And he is
