Tori Amos, Juarez

Dropped off the edge again down in Juarez "Don't even bat an eye If the eagle cries" the rasta man says Just cause the desert likes your girls flesh And no angel came.

I don't think you even know
What you tinbk you just said
So go on
Spill your seed
Shake your gun to the rasta man's head
And the desert
She must be blessed
And no angel came.

There's a time to keep it up A time to keep it in The Indian is told The cowboy is his friend You know that I can breathe Even when I cheat Should Should've been over for me No angel came. No angel came.
