Toto, Turn Back

Only the wind sang the words he could hear Born of the sand washed ashore on a tear Time wrote the lines on his face like a scroll Love is a loss to the man with no soul

Run through the darkness he hears Turn back There's no survivors You can't turn back Dreams keep him turning back the years

[Instrumental break]

Raising his sail cast away on his own Motherless child on a sea all alone Morpheus calls but they won't lay him down Creatures of midnight appear with no sound

[Instrumental break]

Run through the darkness Turn back the years Turn back the years
