Townes Van Zandt, Tecumseh Valley

by Townes Van Zandt
The name she gave was Caroline daughter of a miner her ways were free it seemed to me that sunshine walked beside her

She came from Spencer across the hill she said her pa had sent her 'cause the coal was low and soon the snow would turn the skies to winter

She said she'd come to look for work she was not seeking favors and for a dime a day and a place to stay she'd turn those hands to labor

But the times were hard, Lord, the jobs were few all through Tecumseh valley but she asked around and a job she found tending bar at Gypsy Sally's

She saved enough to get back home when spring replaced the winter but her dreams were denied her pa had died the word come down from Spencer

So she turned to whorin' out on the streets with all the lust inside her and it was many a man returned again to lay himself beside her

They found her down beneath the stairs that led to Gypsy Sally's in her hand when she died was a note that cried fare thee well... Tecumseh valley

The name she gave was Caroline daughter of a miner her ways were free it seemed to me that sunshine walked beside her
