

Tracy Chapman, Goodbye

For you
Its all in a day
One day in a life
Its all in the one word
The one word is goodbye

For me
Its all in what you say
Though youve tried to be kind
Its all in the words
From the lips that once touched mine with a sigh
Goodbye

For you
Its all in your face
The laugh and worry lines
Its all in the one word
You hope will make you young again
Goodbye

Its all in the play
Someone speaks the line
Its all in the one word
That stops and steals the time
Goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye

For me
Its all in a day
Its the part in life
When its all in the words
To fate and circumstance resigned
Goodbye
