Tracy Lawrence, If The World Had A Front Porch

It was where my mama sat on that old swing with her crochet It was where grandaddy taught me how to cuss and how to pray It was where we made our own ice cream those sultry summer nights Where the bulldog had her puppies and us brothers had our fights There were many nights I'd sit right there and look out at the stars To the sound of a distant wippoorwhill or the hum of a passin' car It was where I first got up the nerve to steal me my first kiss And it was where I learned to play guitar and pray I had the gift If the world had a front porch like we did back then We'd still have our problems but we'd all be friends Treatin' your neighbor like he's your next of kin Wouldn't be gone with the wind If the world had a front porch like we did back then

Purple hulls and pintos I've shelled more than my share Cause lighting bugs and crickets danced in the evening air And like a beacon that ol' yellow moon it always led me home Some how mama always knew just when to leave it on If the world had a front porch...

Treatin' your neighbor...
