

Trail Of Tears, Drink Away The Demons

Drink with me and let your demons loose Disengaged from all the poison
You'll see your fear in flames

I raise my cup of pure madness as I'm slowly fading out

I feel the silence and surrender as my heart gives in
I sink to unknown levels

My salvation is painted before my eyes
But it appears so savage
I sink to unknown levels
and smile is being shaped as my lips turn cold

I raise my cup of madness
as I'm slowly fading out

Come
Now that the smell of a thousand winters Threatens
It's time to let go and join me now
