

Trans Atlantic Crush, Never Feel Again

6:18 in the morning and she thinks I'm asleep
The sun softly kisses her lovely face, lovely grace
I hope you're listening
This isn't the first time
It'll be the last
It's only pain, I'll get over it
I don't mind being lonely
But I don't like being alone
I guess for now I'll get over it
But I'll never feel again
She's standing above me
A tear rolls down her face
I hear her whisper
I never loved you
I've been here before
I'll never be here again
I've said it before
This time it's the end
This isn't the first time
It'll be the last
It's only pain
I'll get over it
Now I'm feeling alone
I don't like feeling lonely
I guess for now I'll get over it
But I'll never feel again
