Trans-Siberian Orchestra, Promises To Keep

Christmas time On a cold December morning All is calm And the world is still asleep Christmas lights That have been caught without warning Gently glitter on Stars to wish upon All the world is at peace

Christmas time and the year will soon be leaving Cloaked in time till it's just a memory Christmas stays if we don't forget its meaning Days go quickly by Years they multiply And we go searching for thee

And the dream is still alive From that first December morning And it always will survive As long as we can see That the dreams we find in life Are the dreams we tend to seek And Christmas has its promises to keep

Christmas time And the moments just beginning From last night When we'd wished upon a star

If our kindness This day is just pretending If we pretend long enough Never giving up It just might be who we are

AND SO IT'S GOOD THAT WE REMEMBER JUST AS SOON AS WE'VE DISCOVERED THAT THE THINGS WE DO IN LIFE WILL ALWAYS END UP TOUCHING OTHERS

SO FROM A FADING NEON STAR SOMEWHERE SHINING IN THE NIGHT WE FIND A FATHER FAR AWAY NOW REFLECTING IN ITS LIGHT
