

Transister, I Saw Red

does anyone listen to the radio
does anyone listen to the radio

I saw red
I was angry
I was screaming at the door
I saw red
in your taillights that's the last thing that I saw
does anyone listen to the radio

there are skys between us
there are years
there are times I wish
that you were here

I saw red
in your bedroom after all your friends were gone I saw red
in the darkness when the radio was on
there are skys between us
there are times I wish
that you were here
there are songs
that kill me there are stupid things I said do you keep the memory
by your bed
(does anyone listen to the radio)
(does anyone listen to the radio)
(does anyone listen to the radio)
(does anyone listen to the radio)
(does anyone listen to the radio)
(does anyone listen to the radio)
