

Trapt, Wherever She Goes

Hold me under water
Your hands around my neck
Are you taking me out on me cause
We have nothing left
We both went through it
No use for regrets
So young and stupid
And we can't forget

(bridge)

Well I'll see you again
I will, I will find you
I'll taste you again
I do, I do love you

(chorus)

Wherever she goes, ever she goes
I'll be wherever she goes, ever she goes
I'll be wherever she goes, ever she goes
I'll be wherever she goes, I'll be

Promising forever,
Starts with just a hope
Staying together
Well that's a different rope
Do you believe me
When I say I'm fine
What are you feeling
So deep inside

(bridge)

(chorus)

Who should we blame with our broken hearts
I won't let it tear us apart
You pointed your fingers
You made your demands
And now you have left it all in my hands
I'll follow you, I'll follow you and I'll will give you back the feeling

Wherever she goes, ever she goes
I'll be wherever she goes, ever she goes
I'll be wherever she goes, ever she goes
I'll be wherever she goes, ever she goes

I'll be wherever you go I'll be Open up to me
Tell me what you need
Wherever she goes I'll be
