Traveling Wilburys, New Blue Moon

I don't want nothing
Nothing but you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon
I'm so tired waiting
Waiting for you
Am I waiting
Looking for a new blue moon

So many moons have come and gone And none of them were blue Too many times the sun came up but It came up without you, you, ya yoo hoo oo

You won't call me Call me lonely Am I waiting Looking for a new blue moon

So many moons have come and gone And none of them were blue Too many times the sun come up but It came up without you, you, you - you yahoo

Someday when you want me Someday you may see I was waiting Looking for a new blue moon I was waiting Looking for a new blue moon
